

God on the Brain - Developing Spiritual Intelligence

Wed 21st to Wed 28th June 2017

Traditionally, intelligence has been measured purely on the basis of a person's intellectual skills, measured in an IQ score, but now we recognize a host of different kinds of intelligence, including physical, mental, emotional and spiritual. And many see spiritual intelligence (SQ) as the central and most fundamental of the intelligences because it becomes a compass and source of guidance to all the rest.

But what is spiritual intelligence?
How can it be measured?
More importantly, how can it be grown?
And where does it fit into a Christian understanding of spirituality?

As well as exploring these questions, a main focus of this retreat will be on developing practices that can help to grow spiritual intelligence.

Dave Tomlinson is the vicar of a thriving parish in North London, an experienced Enneagram teacher, spiritual director and author, and a popular speaker and retreat leader.
