

The Questions Jesus Asks

Wed 13th to Wed 20th September 2017

What is the deepest question you have? Jesus asked questions of his disciples and the people he met all the time and they always seemed to be exactly the right ones for the right person at the right time. But Jesus' questions are for us, too. During this retreat we will explore some of the questions Jesus asked using various approaches and we will see how he speaks directly to us today helping us engage with some of our most profound desires.

Revd Canon Alison Christian was a priest in three diverse London parishes before becoming Warden of Launde Abbey, one of the UK's leading retreat houses, in 2012. There she has led numerous retreats, Quiet Days and teaching days on various aspects of prayer and spirituality. Alison is a spiritual director with over 22 years' experience and co-created and led the Spiritual Direction Course for the dioceses of Leicester and Peterborough. Alison describes herself as having a "passion for prayer." She is married to Richard, and they have two adult sons.
