

From Here to Eternity
Wed 19th to Wed 26th September 2018

An exploration of what it may mean to have a mature faith – using the writings of Henri Nouwen. He describes different ways in which the spirit will move us for example from opaqueness to transparency, resentment to gratitude and from denial to the befriending of death.

This holiday retreat will be led by John Rackley, a non-stipendiary Christian minister, spiritual director, retreat and quiet day leader. John is also a former Chairman of the Retreat Association. As well as serving as an associate minister on Market Harborough Methodist Circuit, he also writes a blog called windingquest.wordpress.com. John enjoys reading, walking the family dog and supporting Plymouth Argyle.

During this holiday retreat, day visits to Assisi, Lago Trasimeno and Gubbio will be arranged.
